VOTING

Rule 32

Subject to the relevant provisions of Articles 8, 44, 49 and 52 of the Convention, decisions of the Assembly and of its subsidiary bodies shall be made, elections, including those subject to the provisions of Articles 17 and 28 of the Convention, determined, and reports, resolutions and recommendations adopted by a majority of the members other than associate members present and voting.

Rule 33

Each member, other than associate members, shall have one vote. For the purpose of these rules the phrase 'members present and voting' means members casting an affirmative or negative vote. Members abstaining from voting or casting an invalid vote shall be considered as not voting.

Rule 34

The Assembly shall normally vote by show of hands. However, any member may request a roll-call which shall be taken in the alphabetical order of the names of the members in English, beginning with the member whose name is drawn by lot by the President.

Rule 35

The vote of each member participating in any roll-call shall be inserted in the summary record of the meeting concerned.

Rule 36

If a vote is equally divided, a second vote shall be taken at the next meeting. If this vote also is equally divided, the proposal shall be regarded as rejected.

Rule 37

All elections shall be decided by secret ballot.

Rule 38

In a secret ballot two scrutineers shall, on the proposal of the President, be appointed by the Assembly from the delegations present and shall proceed to scrutinize the votes cast. All invalid votes cast shall be reported to the Assembly.

Rule 39

If one person or member only is to be elected and no candidate obtains a majority in the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken confined normally to the two candidates obtaining the largest number of votes. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided the election shall be deferred until the ensuing meeting, when if another tie results, the President shall decide between the candidates by drawing lots.

Rule 40

When two or more places are to be filled by election at one time under the same conditions, those candidates obtaining a majority in the first ballot shall be declared elected. If the number of candidates obtaining a majority is less than the number of persons or members to be elected, there shall be an additional ballot or ballots, as necessary, to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot and the number of candidates being normally not more than twice as many as the places remaining to be filled.

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS

Rule 41

A majority of the members, other than associate members shall constitute a quorum for the meetings of the Assembly and of its subsidiary bodies.

Rule 42

In addition to exercising the powers conferred upon him elsewhere by these rules, the President shall declare the opening and the closing of the session of the Assembly. He shall direct the discussion and ensure observance of these rules, accord the right to speak, put questions to the vote and announce decisions resulting from the voting.

Rule 43

Proposals and amendments shall normally be introduced in writing and handed to the Secretary-General who shall circulate copies to delegations. As a general rule, no proposal shall be discussed or put to the vote at any meeting of the Assembly unless copies of it have been circulated to delegations not later than the day preceding the meeting. The President may, however, permit the discussion and consideration of amendments or of motions as to procedure even though these amendments and motions have not been circulated or have only been circulated the same day.

Rule 44

The Assembly may on the proposal of the President limit the time to be allowed to each speaker on any particular subject under discussion.

Rule 45

During the discussions of any matter a representative of a member other than an associate member may rise to a point of order and the point of order shall be decided immediately by the President, in accordance with these rules of procedure. A representative of a member may appeal against the ruling of the President. The appeal shall be put to the vote immediately and the President's ruling shall stand unless overruled by a majority of the members present and voting.

A representative rising to a point of order may not speak on the substance of the matter under discussion.

Rule 46

Subject to the provisions of Rule 45 the following motions shall have precedence, in the order indicated below, over all other proposals or motions before the meeting:

- (a) to suspend a meeting,
- (b) to adjourn a meeting,
- (c) to adjourn the debate on the question under discussion, and
- (d) for the closure of the debate on the question under discussion.

Permission to speak on a motion falling within (a) to (d) above shall be granted only to the proposer and in addition to one speaker in favour of and two against the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 47

If two or more proposals relate to the same question, the Assembly, unless it decides otherwise, shall vote on the proposals in the order in which they have been submitted.

Rule 48

Parts of a proposal or amendment thereto shall be voted on separately if the President, with the consent of the proposer, so decides, or if any representative of a member requests that the proposal or amendment thereto be divided and the proposer raises no objection. If objection is raised, permission to speak on the point shall be given first to the mover of the motion to divide the proposal or amendment, and then to the mover of the original proposal or amendment under discussion, after which the motion to divide the proposal or amendment shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 49

Those parts of a proposal which have been approved shall then be put to the vote as a whole; if all the operative parts of the proposal or amendment have been rejected, the proposal or amendment shall be considered to be rejected as a whole.

Rule 50

A motion is considered to be an amendment to a proposal if it merely adds to, deletes from or revises part of that proposal. An amendment shall be voted on before the proposal to which it relates is put to the vote, and if the amendment is adopted, the amended proposal shall then be voted on.

Rule 51

If two or more amendments are moved to a proposal, the Assembly shall first vote on the amendment furthest removed in substance from the original proposal and then on the amendment next furthest removed therefrom and so on until all amendments have been put to the vote. The President shall determine the order of voting on the amendments under this rule.

Rule 52

A motion may be withdrawn by its proposer at any time before voting on it has begun, provided that the motion has not been amended or that an amendment to it is not under discussion. A motion withdrawn may be re-introduced by any member having the right to submit such a motion.

Rule 53

When a proposal has been adopted or rejected, it may not be reconsidered at the same session of the Assembly unless the Assembly, by a majority of the members present and voting, decides in favour of reconsideration. Permission to speak on a motion to reconsider shall be accorded only to the mover and one other supporter and to two speakers opposing the motion, after which it shall be put immediately to the vote.

Rule 54

For the approval of the appointment of the Secretary-General, the Assembly shall vote by secret ballot in private meeting.

AMENDMENTS OF RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 55

These rules of procedure may be amended by a decision of the Assembly taken by a majority of the members present and voting.

OVERRIDING AUTHORITY OF THE CONVENTION

Rule 56

In the event of any conflict between any provision of these rules and any provision of the Convention, the Convention shall prevail.

Agenda item 3

Resolution A.28 (II)

PARTICIPATION IN THE UNITED NATIONS
EXPANDED PROGRAMME OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE

The Assembly,

Taking note of Article 16 of the Convention concerning the functions of the Assembly,

Noting further Article 27 of the Convention concerning performance by the Council of all functions of the Assembly between sessions of that body,

Recalling its Resolution A.7 B (I) which recognized the desirability of the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization being kept informed of those technical assistance activities in the maritime field which the United Nations may undertake under its 'United Nations Programmes of Technical Co-operation',

Notes with satisfaction that the arrangement agreed to between the Secretary-General of the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization and the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the Executive Chairman of the Technical Assistance Board has worked satisfactorily,

Requests the Secretary-General of the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization

- (i) to inform the appropriate authorities of the United Nations that the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization is now in a position to provide, within the scope of Article 1 of the Convention, advice and guidance to those authorities on technical matters affecting shipping engaged in international trade, and
- (ii) to request such authorities to arrange that all appropriate applications on which the advice of the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization would be useful should be referred to the Organization at as early a stage as possible in their consideration.

Agenda item 12(a)

Resolution A.29 (II)

FACILITATION OF TRAVEL AND TRANSPORT

The Assembly,

Recalling Article 16 of the Convention regarding the functions of the Assembly,

Taking note of Article IV of the Agreement on Relationship between the United Nations and the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization,

Noting further the provisions of Article 27 of the Convention whereby the Council performs all the functions of the Organization between sessions of the Assembly,

Noting in addition Resolution 724 B (XXVIII) adopted on 17 July 1959 by the Economic and Social Council on the facilitation of international travel and transport,

Having examined the Report of the Council on this subject,

Moreover, recognizing the necessity, stressed by the Council, of simplifying and reducing the number of documents required of ships entering or leaving port,

Recognizing in addition that the Organization should not neglect the problem of the transport of goods, which is of even greater importance to the merchant fleets of the world than the carriage of passengers,

Noting that this aspect is not covered by the Resolution of the Economic and Social Council,

Considering that the Inter-Governmental Maritime Consultative Organization's action should be confined to the regulations of governments or public authorities in regard to ships entering and leaving port, or to those documents, varying both in number and character, which are consequently required to be presented at various ports,
